LIST

Podcasters ^{FOR} CHRIST

Hi,

Thank you for downloading this resource.

I have put together this list of sources that can help you to find guests for your podcast. This list is, by no means, complete. New sources are coming all of the time. In fact, I'm putting together a resource just for booking interviews. But this will definitely get you started!

You can search through listings of people who want to do interviews – with YOU!

You can search by name, by topic, by genre, etc.

And this works both ways (if you upgrade to the free lists). You can put your profile out there and have people reach out and book interviews WITH YOU!

If I went back and tallied the number of interviews I have booked over the last three years, I would estimate 70% or more of my interviews have been booked through one or more of these services.

Again, just for clarity, I am compiling this list to assist you in finding people to interview or to help you to be found by others who want to do interviews. I am not recommending any one service over another or guaranteeing any level of results.

But one thing I do know, if you use these resources, you will be able to find "SOMEBODY" to interview!

Happy Talking!

The first resource I want to mention is our very own “searchable data base” and bi-weekly newsletter, “FaithCasters Connections.”

You can visit www.FaithCaster.org/sign-up-page for more information. The newsletter is FREE but to register and add your profile to our database is a paid subscription ($15).
